

Scholarships/Financial Aid

Delano High School is hosting a Financial Aid Workshop on Thursday, December 15 at 7 p.m. in the MS Auditorium.

Many scholarships can be found on the Delano High School website/Guidance and Counseling/Student Services/Career Center. Other scholarships can be found at http://apps.collegeboard.org/cbsearch_ss/welcome.jsp

Other important and helpful websites:

*Visit the www.fafsa.gov (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) about applying for federal financial aid. Federal Student Aid has released the 2010-11 FAFSA on the Web Preview Presentation – <http://ifap.edgov/efcformulaguide/attachments/111>

*U.S. Department of Education's College Affordability and Transparency Center

*NACAC summarized the ways in which the Federal Government Provides Online Resources for Financial Aid Counseling under HEOA. <http://www.nacacnet.org/legislativeaction/legislativenews/documents>.

*US Department of Education's 2010-11 Federal Student Handbook for Counselors assisting students in the financial aid process. <http://ifap.ed.gov/ifap/byawardyear>

*The Federal Trade commission has identified preventing scholarship scams as a major priority. If you think you've been scammed, contact the FTC via their online form: <https://www.ftccomplainassistant.gov>